

GIORGIO MORANDI

July / August 2021

The Galleria Torbandena will open next Summer a retrospective show with selected works of one of the giants of Modern Art.

Around twelve oils and watercolors, selected by Marilena Pasquali, will be hosted in the historical space of the gallery.

With some important provenances, so as the collection Emilio Jesi, and some other Italian collections who has accepted with enthusiasm to participate in this project.

During the exhibition will be presented the last book by Marilena Pasquali on Giorgio Morandi: Il sentimento delle cose, published by Gli Ori editors.

Some of the works exhibited in Torbandena will travel after the show to Spain, for the big retrospective organized by the Fundación Mapfre of Madrid, The show will take place in October in Madrid, and in February in the museum spaces of La Pedrera in Barcelona.